GRATITUDE

Surely we can all recall at least a few days in our lives when things were going so well that nothing could put us in a bad mood. Maybe it was the day a very special person asked us to the senior prom, or perhaps it was our wedding day. Maybe it was the day we learned that we were expecting a long-awaited child, or the day we got an overdue promotion. There was elation in our hearts and lightness in our step, an extraordinary vitality throughout the day. We probably got on the phone right away to tell at least a few key people about our good fortune.

This is surely how Naaman and the leper must have felt when they were rid of their terrible diseases. They were hard-pressed to contain their gratitude, and although they were both unfamiliar with the customs of a foreign land, they had the good manners to thank the people responsible for their cures.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Naaman, cleansed from his leprosy, returns to Elisha and pledges his belief in and allegiance to the LORD (2 Kings 5:14-17).
 Psalm — The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power (Psalm 98).

Second Reading — Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from the dead. If we persevere, we shall reign with him (2 Timothy 2:8-13).

Gospel — After ten lepers are cleansed by Jesus, only one, a Samaritan, returns to give him thanks (Luke 17:11-19).

The breakdown is as follows: 1 - $500; 1 - $400; 1 - $300; 11 - $200; 3 - $150; 59 - $100; 2 - $85; 8 - $75; 1 - $65; 3 - $60; 168 - $50; 93 - $49 and under. Thanks to all for the generous contributions

Marriage Moments

“Only 1 leper returned to give thanks to God” (Luke 17:18) Gratitude is a popular poster virtue these days, but inspiration does not always translate into action. Today do 2 acts of gratitude. #1: Notice and thank your beloved for an act of kindness. #2: Note a problem in your life. Turn it around by imagining how it could have been worse. Thank God.

Parenting Pointers

“Moses' hands grew tired.” (Ex 17:12) We all grow tired at some point in life. (Even kids eventually get tired of crying) When this happens we need the support of those close to us. Ask your family to lighten another member's load in some way this week.

Liturgy Corner: Did You Know?

The Sanctoral Cycle

As noted previously, the liturgical year consists of the six periods of Advent, Christmas Time, Lent, The Sacred Paschal Triduum, Easter Time and Ordinary Time.

Running parallel to this cycle of the liturgical year is what is called the Sanctoral Cycle: those solemnities, feasts, and memorials that fall on particular days of the calendar year.

For the most part, these days that celebrate particular saints or events in the lives of Jesus and the Virgin Mary.

These days are ranked in order of importance:

- Solemnities are the most important and must be celebrated even if they fall on Sundays in Ordinary Time (though never on the Sundays of Advent, Lent, or Easter Time).
- Feasts are next in importance and must be celebrated, but usually only on weekdays. There are exceptions, however, and some, including the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph are always celebrated on a particular Sunday of the year. Others, usually because they are celebrations pertaining to the Lord, are important enough to preempt Sundays in Ordinary Time. An example would be the feast of The Exaltation of the Holy Cross.
- Obligatory memorials must be celebrated but only on weekdays outside of Lent. They do not take the place of Sundays and, during Lent, may be replaced by the regular Lenten weekday Mass.
- Optional memorials need not be celebrated at all. Optional memorials usually celebrate saints that have a connection to a particular group or area.
