Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart.

— Psalm 90:12

Welcome

*To all who are tired and need rest; to all who mourn and need comfort;
to all who are friendless and need friendship;
to all who are discouraged and need hope;
to all who are homeless and need sheltering love;
and to all who sin and need a Savior;
and to whomsoever will,
the Parish of Saints Peter and Paul opens wide its doors in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ!*

HITTING IT BIG

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: Why, of course he'd want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It's exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this "common wisdom" makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Do not spend your life toiling for material gain (Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 90).

Second Reading — Christ has raised you to new life, so seek now what is above (Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11).

Gospel — Be on guard against all greed, for your life does not consist of earthly possessions, but of the riches of the reign of God (Luke 12:13-21).

Don't tell me that worry doesn't do any good. I know better. The things I worry about never happen.

Catholic Relief Service Collection

“Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me” (Mt 25:40). Today, we are reminded that Jesus identified himself with our poorest brothers and sisters. The Catholic Relief Services Collections serves Jesus in the victims of human trafficking, those who suffer from unjust laws, and those who need pastoral care and humanitarian assistance across the globe. Through supporting today’s collection, you help Jesus in disguise. Please be generous.

Discern Your Gift

Minister

Have you given any thought to becoming a cantor? When some people come forth there will be a brief training program for new cantors. No one expects anyone to just get up in front of the assembly and sing.

And, after that, please know that our cantors rehearse the music with the organist each week prior to the Mass.

Junior High, High School, College students and adults qualify by age for this ministry.

What is also necessary is a willingness to lead the assembly in song at any of our Masses and a faithfulness to adhering to the cantor schedule.

Once again this is a ministry ...not a job. It is also not a performance.

If God has given you the gift of a strong, pleasant voice perhaps you are being called to this ministry. Think about it. Discern. Is the gift you are being called to offer?

Marriage Moments

Natural or national disasters can bring out the best in humanity as we rally to help those in need. A marriage crisis can also prompt a couple to sacrifice for each other or honestly deal with a recurring problem. Don’t wait for a disaster, however, to test your love. Prevention is better.

Liturgy Corner: Did You Know? Images

Images – statues and pictures of Christ and the saints – used to abound in Catholic churches and have a long and noble place in the history of western art.

Today these artifacts are used much more sparingly and placed in such a way that we understand what is central to our faith and worship and what is of lesser importance.

Images do help us in our prayer life, though, and so we can still go to any Catholic church and find stations of the cross and images of the Virgin Mary and the patron saints of the community that worships in that space.

The Year of Mercy Offers an Opportunity to Bring Healing in the Area of Failed Marriages:

When marriages fail, Catholics may be unclear about their relationship to the Church.

- “I am civilly divorced and not sure whether I can continue to receive the Eucharist or be a part of the parish community”.
- “I am not sure about the status of my marriage. It would be helpful to talk to someone who could explain it to me”.
- “My spouse and I would like to explore having our marriage blessed in the church”.
- “I don’t know what an annulment really is and why I would want one. Also, I heard they are expensive.”

Do any of these voices sound like you or someone you know? In the Diocese of Scranton, the annulment process is now more “user friendly” than you might expect, and there is no longer a processing fee. Please contact your pastor or the Diocesan Tribunal Office (570-207-2246) to begin a conversation, It is possible to get clear answers to these questions and to renew your connection with the church.

Back to School Supplies for St. Vincent de Paul Soup Kitchen are now being taken. Items being collected are: Backpacks, Notebooks, Binders, Paper, Pens, Plastic Scissors, Pencils, Pencil Sharpeners, Markers Erasers, Glue Sticks & Crayons. Items will be collected up until August 18th.
