

SS. Peter and Paul Parish

A Roman Catholic Faith Community

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 1, 2015

Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the Lord who made us.

- Psalm 95:6

Welcome

To all who are tired and need rest; to all who mourn and need comfort; to all who are friendless and need friendship; to all who are discouraged and need hope; to all who are homeless and need sheltering love; and to all who sin and need a Savior; and to whomsoever will, the Parish of SS. Peter and Paul opens wide its doors in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

Mission Statement

As members of SS. Peter and Paul, we have as our mission the sharing of our faith and our talents.
We proclaim the Word of God through compassion for our community and sharing of our treasures as Disciples of Christ.

Pastor's Message

Mark 1:21-28

"The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes."

Jesus was doing something different. His teaching was new, fresh, surprising. And just in case those who heard him doubted his legitimacy, Jesus proved his authority by more than words; he cast out evil spirits. When the people witnessed Jesus commanding "even the unclean spirits" and saw that these spirits obeyed him, they were "amazed" at this "new teaching with authority."

What our Jewish ancestors experienced is recorded for us to bolster our own faith. Although we were not there to see these events unfold, if we meditate on the reality of today's Gospel story we will also be astonished and amazed. Jesus is more than a teacher. He is more than a kind man with an attractive philosophy. Jesus has power over the spiritual world! His authority over us is real. And he exercises this authentic authority for our own good. He has the power to do away with evil and to set us free, both through his teachings—passed on to us in the Bible and in the Church—and through his action in our lives. We only need to follow

Questions of the Week

Mark 1:21-28:

Why do you think Mark records an exorcism as Jesus' first miracle?

Deuteronomy 18:15-20:

Why do you think Moses' prophecy ends with such a dire warning?

1 Corinthians 7:32-35:

How does your faith life assist you in being "free of anxieties"

Justice Notes

I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him

- Deuteronomy 18: 18

In Moses' time, the people were so terrified by the power of the Lord that God pledged to put power in one of their kin (man or woman) to deliver His words. So, it is understandable that the Hebrew word for prophet, nabi, means "a fruit produced from the inside of man, a knowledge of something that is not known by the five senses." The prophet or prophetess is one who brings forth this inner fruit, they intuit the correct action. This can be very unnerving for those who are relying only on sense perception to evaluate things. Fast forward to Jesus' time and you see people who know Jesus and are now wondering about his actions and how he teaches with authority. What does this all mean to us today? Perhaps, it means that we should be looking beyond the surface of things to get to the real truth. For that, we have to journey inward and examine our own assumptions, world view, and prejudices. What social injustice do you accept as the way things are? Why do you feel this way? Pope Francis keeps talking about social justice, like the ancient prophets, but are we receiving his teachings, examining them in our hearts, and acting upon them? He writes in Lumen Fidei (15, 17), that, "Christian faith is thus faith in a perfect love, in its decisive power, in its ability to transform the world and to unfold its history. . . . Our culture has lost its sense of God's tangible presence and activity in our world. We think that God is to be found in the beyond, on another level of reality, far removed from our everyday relationships. But if this were the case, if God could not act in the world, his love would not be truly powerful, truly real, and thus not even true, a love capable of delivering the bliss that it promises. God trusts us to put the love we have received into action to help transform the world. Edgar Guest, an English-born American poet, writes this simple poem:

The things that haven't been done before Are the tasks worthwhile today; Are you one of the flock that follows, or Are you one that shall lead the way?

Together we can make it another great fundraiser. Tickets will be available in the church next weekend.

Food Pantry

Thank you to all, who continue to support the Food Pantry. We are grateful for the food and monetary donations received in the past year. The holidays were an extremely busy time for the Pantry. The shelves are quite empty and need restocking. We are in need of:

Canned fruits and vegetables,
Meats, Tuna,
Cereal, Peanut Butter and Jelly, Soups,
Boxes: Pasta, Spaghetti,
Macaroni & Cheese
Hamburger Helper

We cannot use outdated, opened or dented items. Again thank you for your continue support!!!

Marriage Moments

(Ground Hog Day) In the spirit of the groundhog, develop your shadow side today. If you're shy, make an overture to someone in need. If you're not very affectionate, give your spouse an unexpected kiss or hug. If you're a work-a-holic, take some time off to play together. You get the idea.

Wedding Anniversary Mass

His Excellency, the Most Reverend Joseph C. Bambera D.D., J.C.L., Bishop of Scranton, and the Office for Parish Life wish to invite couples celebrating their 25th or 50th wedding anniversary in 2015 to a diocesan Wedding Anniversary Mass on Sunday, June 7.(This is a change from the original date of June 21). The event includes a 2:30pm Mass at St. Peter's Cathedral followed by a reception. Request for an invitation, with a mailing address, should be made through your pastor before March 16. Please call the Parish Office if you would like to participate.

Parenting Pointers

February is Black History Month. No matter what our skin color, religion, or economic status we need to learn to get along with people who are different from us. As a family, learn about a race different from your own this month.
